Seminar Etiquette

If your dog barks while crated, please crate in your car. It's very convenient to work out of your car at Wildwood Barn.

Do not hold side conversations while the instructor is talking— this is really, really hard! It's best to step out of the barn for conversations.

Be very aware of where your dog is and what he/she is doing when other dogs, especially novice dogs, are on course.

Avoid distractions for the dog on course.

Listen to the instructor without interrupting.

Try what she suggests without arguing or explaining why your case is an exception.

Do not run the course before the session starts or during lunch. It's not fair to others, since there is not time for every-one to get their dog on the course. It's hard for the instructor, who is tweaking the course. Your dog will get plenty of time on course during the session. The instructor has things she wants to teach from the course. Practicing without that instruction is dismissive of the value of the instruction.

DO move to where you can hear the instructor's comments, even if it's in the center of the ring.

Do not add your instructions to the instructor's coaching unless asked.

Here are some thoughts from Susan Garrett's blog:

*"Come with an open mind and a closed mouth."
(But do ask questions!)*

"If you knew how to do this already, you wouldn't be here, so don't expect a flawless performance from yourself."

"Go to class to ingest. Go home and digest what you ingested."

"Be comfortable with being confused. Enjoy the clutter."

Or, establish a mental 'For Later Processing' file, and stuff every confusing thing into it. You will find when you go back later and review all the confusing items, half of them aren't confusing any more and can be filed into one of your existing mental files."

NOMAD Spring Membership Meeting

Monday, April 29th at 7 P.M. in the Richmond Congregational church

Hope everyone can make it on a Monday evening. See next page for more information.

The Annual NOMAD Spring Membership Meeting will take place Monday April 29, from 7 to 9 P.M., at the Richmond Congregational Church

The Steering Committee encourages everyone to attend the 2012 Spring Meeting on Monday, April 29th at 7 P.M., at the Richmond Congregational Church. Directions at right (same location as Fall 2012 meeting). We will be reviewing committee activities and voting on last year's minutes. If you are unable to attend the meeting, please vote by proxy as we need enough members voting in person or by proxy to meet the quorum requirements. The Fall Minutes are on the website and may be found in the November newsletter.

Although there are generally two ways to designate a proxy vote (by voting on a proxy form or by designating someone to act as your proxy), we are asking everyone to vote by using the proxy form at the right. You may vote by sending to the Secretary, Sarah Albert, sarah@vtlink.net, indicating your vote on the items listed on the Proxy (the proxy can be copied from here and pasted into your email if you choose). If you don't have email, you can fill in the proxy form and mail it to her at: Sarah Albert, 900 Gonyeau Rd, Plainfield VT 05667

Equipment Revival Party

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, May 15. That's the date of NOMAD's Equipment Revival Party. The party will take place at Roberta Dumas's house on Leary Rd. in Jericho. It will start at 1:00 p.m. and go until we are done. The more members who come means we're done sooner. We will need to clean barn dirt off the practice equipment, clean out the trailer, and re-tape some of the jump bars. No equipment will need to be painted this year! NOMAD cannot function without equipment so this is a great opportunity for working members to earn hours toward their 20-hour-per-year work commitment. It's also a fun way to get together with fellow NOMAD members. Another benefit to coming will be an opportunity to buy some great equipment that we're auctioning off! Bring your elbow grease, rubber gloves, and a sense of humor.

Directions to Roberta's House

From Burlington

Take I-89 to Richmond exit. Take a left at the end of the exit ramp and follow Rt. 2 under the I-89 overpass. Take the next right onto Rt. 117. Take another immediate right onto Governor Peck Hgwy. Bidding begins on May 1. Email your bid(s) directly to Roberta @ilvcallie@comcast.net from May 1- May 7. (Please do not email bids to the NOMAD list.) As bids come in, Roberta will post them to the list, keeping the bidder's name anonymous. Anyone coming to the Revival Party will have the opportunity to make final bids. So if you really want something, make a serious bid, and cross your fingers that you will not be outbid if you can't come to the Revival Party. Those who do attend the party will definitely have a bidding advantage.

Make Mistakes

by Troy Bassham MENTALMANAGEMENT.COM

I have been spending my Monday evenings teaching a Mental Toughness course to high school and collegiate competitors. Great conversation and topics come up from this audience. The topics of mistakes is a recent one we have discussed. Are mistakes ok? Should you make them? Why and when?

My father, Lanny Bassham, has always told me that you should not be afraid to make mistakes. In fact, he almost encouraged me to make them. I learned that the timing of mistakes, as well as the willingness to make them was an instrumental part of success. Granted there are times we can't predict when we will make a mistake, but we should be willing to make mistakes earlier rather than later.

If you are striving to reach a goal or accomplish a task that you are motivated to reach, you will make mistakes along the way to reach that task. For me, I learned quickly that being ok with making mistakes early in my journey was much better than trying not to make mistakes at all. There are two prime reasons you should be ok with making mistakes early in your journey to your goal.

First, by being ok with making a mistake in the beginning you are more motivated to continue with the pursuit of your goal. For many of us, mistakes are discouraging and they keep us from staying motivated to reach our goal. People often procrastinate because they fear that they will make mistakes and that these mistakes will keep them from reaching their goal.

Mistakes show us that we are willing to take risk and without risk, why would the goal be worth striving for? If you make a mistake in the beginning you are able to correct and stay on course to reach your goal on time. If you try to not make mistakes you increase the probability of making a key mistake toward the end.

Secondly, you are allowing yourself to take some pressure off your shoulders. Mistakes show opportunities where we can grow. By seeing these opportunities early we can learn from our mistakes and become the person that we need to be in order to reach our goal. Mistakes are what they are, mistakes. They are not intentional, they are accidents within our plan that force us to look at what we are doing. If changes need to be made, now is the time to make them. That is what mistakes provide.

So don't be afraid to make mistakes. Allow yourself early on in your goal planning to be OK with making them and learn from them. This will keep you on track and keep you from making that critical mental mistake of focusing on the obstacles and instead allow you to look at the opportunity you have to grow. Remember, elite performers focus on opportunities, while others focus on obstacles!

MINUTES NOMAD Seminar Committee Meeting

PLEASE NOTE:

Thanks to a suggestion from Jennifer Kachajian we are going to try something new. This month I am sending the newsletter as usual but also including a link to the newsletter on NOMAD's website. In the future, unless there are many people who do not like this method, we will just send a link to the site.

Apple Core Luncheonette in Waterbury

Attendees: Lynne, Sarah, Pam, Lisa B, Caroline, Billie, Judy K, Michelle

Two items were raised that require steering committee input:

- For events (e.g., seminars, camp) do participants sign up according to their current membership category (i.e. working or supporting member) or according to the previous year's membership category? The committee has been assuming that the current year's category was applicable in determining fees for seminars and camps, but this has not been clearly stated in camp or seminar announcements. **Note that seminar committee need to include this information in camp announcement for next year**
- In order to have consistency can NOMAD identify the additional percentage that supporting members will be asked to pay for events (e.g., camp, seminars). The committee recommends 40% - and that's what we're going with for this year's camp.

One item was raised that involves the equipment committee:

- It would be good to own a small, lightweight table (like a card table) that could be set up and used for course maps, nametags, instructor notes, etc. during seminars; table should be large enough to be used for scoring during barn events.

Revised Camp NOMAD 2013 budget (accommodating all 26 teams that signed up for camp)

- Sat/Sun 10 teams per group
  - o $125/day Working members
  - o $175/day Supporting members
  - o weekend: $250 Working; $350 Supporting
- Friday/6 teams
  - o $165 Working members
  - o $230 Supporting members
- Agreed to pay both instructors equally ($900/day)
- Agreed that current year membership category will determine 2013 camp rate; currently there are three supporting members signed up for camp.

Camp Duties

- Agreed to post duties list in May newsletter

Camp Groups

- Called one participant during the meeting for clarification on days/instructors to finalize groups (at least for now!)
- Groups are largely based on jump height, they're not broken out by skill or experience level.

Selection of Chairperson(s)

- No one wanted to step up; Lynne & Michelle will continue as chairs for 2013
- Monique Seminar April 6-7, discussed and duties assigned.
